

White Wine

Evans and Tate Breathing Space Chardonnay

Margaret River, Western Australia

bottle: $22.00 glass: $7.00

A nice, lightly oaked chardonnay with aromas of stone fruit and melon and a fresh and flavoursome palate. Easy drinking.

Mudhouse Sauvignon Blanc

Marlborough, New Zealand

bottle: $26.00 glass: $7.50

This is an eminently drinkable, classic Marlborough. If you know what you like, and that's a good NZ sauv blanc, then you can't go wrong with the Mudhouse.

Devil's Corner Riesling

Tamar Valley, Tasmania

bottle: $27.00 glass: $8.00

A superb cool climate wine from one of the coolest Australian climates. Fresh, crisp with zesty, punchy citrus flavours.

Sew and Sew Fiano

Barossa Valley, South Australia

bottle: $28.00 glass: $8.00

Intensely flavoured and aromatic, firm acid gives this wine some depth and there's a crispy, chalky finish with spice and honey undertones. Try this if you usually drink sauv blanc or pinot gris.

Rusty Fig Verdelho

Just down the road, New South Wales

bottle: $29.00 glass: $8.00

This local wine displays strong cool climate varietal characteristics that are cleaner and fresher than Verdelho produced in warmer climate regions like the Hunter. It is very aromatic, with floral notes and complex stone fruit and citrus flavours, has a long full palate and a crisp fruit finish.

Molly's Cradle Chardonnay

Hunter Valley, New South Wales

bottle: $29.00 glass: $8.00

This is a lovely Hunter Valley chardonnay, with peach and melon on the palate and some gentle oak. It's a delicate chardonnay that is ideal on its own or paired with a meal.

Nugan Estate Pinot Grigio

King Valley, Victoria

bottle: $30.00 glass: $8.00

This is a fresh and vibrant pinot grigio from Victoria's cool climate King Valley. It's crisp, with apple and pear aromas; there's definitely some citrus there, and it has a nice, clean finish.

Cockfighter's Ghost Semillon

Hunter Valley, New South Wales

bottle: $31.00 glass: $8.50

A light, fresh style of white wine, and a Hunter Valley Classic! Fresh citrus lemon and lime fruits, with a hint of nectarine stone fruit, and a fairly crisp finish.

Shaw and Smith Sauvignon Blanc

Adelaide Hills, South Australia

bottle only: $37.00

Just about the loveliest Australian sauv blanc we've ever had. And we've had a few. This gives NZ Marlboroughs a run for their money. It's crispy, dry yet fruity and lively and has depth of flavour. One of our all-time favourite white wines. You will not be disappointed.

Red Wine

Devil's Lair Fifth Leg Red

Geographe/Margaret River, Western Australia

bottle: $23.00 glass: $7.00

Fifth Leg is from the renowned Margaret River Winery Devil's Lair. This cabernet-shiraz-merlot blend has aromas of plums, berries and spices. This is a smooth, medium-bodied, red with not too much tannin.

Calabria Nero D'Avola

Riverina, New South Wales

bottle: $26.00 glass: $7.50

Sicily's most important grape and when you try this you will understand why. Berries and cherries, earthy and dry, but smooth with soft tannins. Very drinkable and a great example of how well some European varietals can do in Australia.

Rusty Fig Tempranillo

Just down the road, New South Wales

bottle: $29.00 glass: $8.00

This wine exhibits the typical plum and red berry fruit characteristics of Tempranillo with a lively palate, fine tannins, good length and savoury notes. It has more complexity than earlier vintages. It is drinking well now and is ideal with grilled and roasted meats and Mediterranean dishes.

Brand's Laira Blockers Cabernet Sauvignon

Coonawarra, South Australia

bottle: $29.00 glass: $8.00

This is a cool climate wine of rich dark berry fruits with chocolate and vanilla flavours that are the result of oak maturation. The wine has a long finish with solid fine-grained tannin structure and lingering fruit flavours. This wine tastes a lot more expensive than the price you'll be paying.

Philip Shaw The Conductor Merlot

Orange, New South Wales

bottle: $29.00 glass: $8.00

Philip Shaw's The Conductor is a succulent and savoury merlot. The wine shows fleshy red berry fruits with notes of mushroom and dried herbs. It is medium bodied wine with fine savoury tannins. The palate is smooth with gentle fruit tannins and poised acidity.

Sew and Sew GSM- Grenache, Shiraz, Mataro

McLaren Vale, South Australia

bottle: $30.00 glass: $8.00

This plum purple GSM has a richly perfumed aroma of spices including nutmeg, cinnamon and candied ginger which combine with red cherry and bright red summer fruits. The palate has a hint of cherry and plum supported by a tantalising combination of spiciness and fine tannins.

6Ft6 Shiraz

Geelong, Victoria

bottle: $31.00 glass: $8.50

Silky and vibrant, this is a rich and satisfying shiraz. It's one of our most popular reds. James Halliday says "Cool climate shiraz of this quality, at this price level, is a rare beast. It's all pepper, crushed cleaves and solid blackberry/black cherry flavour. It's balanced, fresh-faced, juicy and savoury" – says it all, really.

More reds over the page....

Ninth Island Pinot Noir*Pipers River, Tasmaniabottle: $32.00 glass: $9.00*

With many, many pinot noirs to choose from in the world, we still think you can't go far wrong with Ninth Island. An absolutely classic pinot noir flavour, it's deliciously delicate and light, but maybe a bit more sophisticated than your average product of the region.

St Hallett Blockhead Shiraz*Barossa Valley, South Australiabottle: $34.00 glass $9.00*

A big, rich Barossa Shiraz, smooth and silky and full of fruit and with plush, structured tannins. This vintage scored 94 points so it's a fantastic example of the quality of Barossa shiraz.

Centennial Barbera Reserve*Bowral, NSWbottle only: $37.00*

Barbera is one of our long-time favourite Italian varieties, and this is a good Australian expression. It's smooth and rich - you can taste fruitcake and spice and dark chocolate. It's a robust red with a silky finish.

Cape Mentelle Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot*Margaret River, Western Australiabottle only $41.00*

Taking inspiration from the classic reds of Bordeaux, the depth and structure of the cab sauv is complemented by the dark fruits and big flavours of the merlot. This has a long finish and is perfect with red meats. Even though they say it could cellar from 20 years, we think this is drinking really well now.

Penfolds Max's Cabernet Sauvignon*Barossa Valley, South Australiabottle only: $43.00*

This regional blend has an intense, deep flavour and blackcurrant and toffee-like aromas on the nose. We've picked Max's cab sauv because we think it's good value for money; and because it was produced as a tribute to Penfold's late, great chief winemaker Max Schubert, so we knew it would be good.

Henschke Keyneton Euphonium*Barossa Valley, South Australiabottle only: $69.00*

Henschke is one of Australia and the world's leading premium wine producers and the pure class of the Keyneton Euphonium backs up that reputation. Shiraz-led and a beautiful deep crimson, this is a rich, full-bodied and complex wine with a lovely texture. It will be the best thing that happens to you today.

Rosé

Sew & Sew Rosé
Barossa Valley, SA

bottle: $25.00 glass $8.00

This is a 100% grenache rosé. We like that it's not too sweet and not too dry; it has delicate, fresh flavours and a nose of summer berries and floral notes. Grab a bottle, shut your eyes – you could be in Provence! Almost...

Sparkling

Brown Brothers King Valley Prosecco
King Valley, Australia

bottle: $26.00 piccolo: $9.00

This is a very drinkable sparkling, with bright fresh pears, apples and musky sweet floral fragrance, smooth on the palate – not your average prosecco.

Squealing Pig Spritzed Rosé Can (250ml)

can only: $9.00

Wine in a can? Yep, this is a thing, and it's pretty good, too. The palate is full of strawberries and cream flavours, with just a touch of sweetness balanced by a crisp, refreshing finish.

Jansz Sparkling Rosé
Northern Tasmania

bottle only: $39.00

The perfect summer drink. Fresh and pink, with an aroma of strawberries and florals and a soft and creamy mousse.

Grant Burge Pinot Noir Chardonnay NV Sparkling
Adelaide Hills, Eden Valley, South Australia

bottle only: $45.00

Nice, clean easy-drinking sparkling. One of the better Australian examples. Go on, treat yourself!

Spirits

As well as our gins (see the next page for details) and whiskies, we pride ourselves on offering a diverse selection of rums, vodkas, bourbons, liqueurs and tequila. We have some fantastic aged single malts, some award-winning Australian gins, some unusual spirits that we've come across in our travels, and most of the usual suspects you would expect to find behind any self-respecting bar.

Gins

All of our gins are served with Capi tonic water – a premium, award-winning Australian tonic with notes of lemon, lime and orange essential oils. You need a great tonic for a great G&T! Our gin and tonics range between $8 and $12.

Gordon's London Dry Gin

Our house gin. One of the world's oldest and best-known London dry gins.

Bombay Sapphire

Probably the world's most famous gin (or so they say) with 10 botanicals – juniper berries, lemon peel, coriander, angelica root, orris, grains of paradise, cubeb berries, cassia bark, almonds and liquorice.

Hendricks

An iconic gin with 11 botanicals – most of the usuals plus caraway seeds, chamomile, elderflower and orange peel, and then finished with an infusion of essence of cucumber and rose.

The Drom Buddha's Hand Gin (when available)

A London dry gin base, infused by the Drom team with the dramatic multi-fingered citrus buddha's hand. This unique fruit gives our Drom gin a lovely, soft, perfumed, lemon aroma.

The Drom Rhubarb Gin (when available)

Our second house infusion, with a London dry gin base, is infused with rhubarb from Maryanne's market garden at the top of the hill, or we grab some from Tilba's great little Saturday Market.

Four Pillars Rare Dry Gin

From the Yarra Valley, a benchmark Australian gin with botanicals highlighted by native Tasmanian pepperberry and lemon myrtle leaf, and orange.

Poor Toms Sydney Gin

A fantastic Sydney dry gin, with a wheat spirit base infused with 10 botanicals, including native strawberry gum leaf, chamomile and fresh green apple. Refreshingly different.

Giniversity Botanical Gin

From Margaret River in WA, the handpicked botanicals that give it its name include juniper, lemon myrtle, sandalwood, boronia and eucalypt. Distinctive and aromatic. Really good.

Silent Pool Gin

From close to Susan's hometown in Surrey, UK, this juniper-led gin is a multi-award winner containing 24 botanicals and is finished with Surrey honey for a smooth, refreshing, complex gin.

Moore's Gin

From the NSW Central Coast, this is the first Australian gin to win Gold at the London International Wine and Spirit Competition. With 7 botanicals and a focus on Australian natives, it's a cracker.

Ink Gin

From Byron Bay, Ink is the world's only all-natural colour-changing gin. The Butterfly Pea gives this amazing gin its distinctive purple colour, and the addition of tonic delivers an instant and remarkable colour change. With 12 botanicals, this is a gin truly unlike any other.

North of Eden Classic

An artisan London dry style of gin, produced locally in small batches with botanicals from the distiller's own farm. The juniper is complemented by fresh citrus and floral layers and is a testament to the produce of the Sapphire Coast.

North of Eden Connoisseur

The hero of the North of Eden range, this Sapphire Coast local gin has over a dozen botanicals including locally harvested kelp. There are light mineral layers working with the citrus, floral and berry notes. Delightfully different!

Hartshorn Gin

This unique spirit from Hartshorn Distillery in Tasmania is made using Sheep Whey and was a Gold Medal winner in the 2018 World Gin Awards. It's made with juniper and six native Australian botanicals, including lemon myrtle, anise myrtle, wattle seed, Tasmanian pepper leaf and two secret botanicals – "an Australian native flower and an Australian sweet grass" – that have never been used in gin before.

Nosferatu Blood Orange Gin

Produced in Victoria, voted best gin bottle and a medal winner at the Australian Gin Awards 2019. A cult classic and like no other. Sweet, sweet aromas of orange and spice in this oh-so-heady gin. Oh, and there's just a little bite at the end. Nosferatu Blood Orange Gin. You know you want to try it.

Prohibition Gin

With Gold Medals in the San Francisco World Spirit Awards 2018 & 2019 this Adelaide gin is much more than a very cool gin bottle. A delicate citrus/floral nose of fresh lime, guava and lavender warmth, herbal tones of pink peppercorn, lemon myrtle and a hint of unmistakable wormwood. On the palate there's blood orange and peppery juniper, and lavender floral and vanilla tones continue onto a smooth and elegant finish.

Brocken Spectre

This elegant Tasmanian gin was developed specifically for gin and tonics. It's complex, with sixteen botanicals including flavours of juniper and coriander seed, star anise and vanilla, lemon myrtle and strawberry gum, lemon and rosemary.
